This exuberant drawing by the highly coveted Robert Nava acquired a notable amount of buzz from collectors this past week. TBC, which is now on hold, is reminiscent of cave paintings and showcases the Indiana-born, Brooklyn-based artist's ability to build bright, fantastical worlds through frenetic strokes and hybrid mythological animals. The drawing is one of three new works by Nava currently exhibited in "Sunburst," a group show presented by Various Small Fires in collaboration with Night Gallery at the former's Seoul outpost.
